

Perreaux 200ix

$7,500
perreaux.com

While the model you see here is more of a “sample,” built to show what they could do in the paint shop at Perreaux, you can order your 200ix in any of these fun colors.

With a built-in streaming DAC and phono stage, you won’t have to worry about it matching your other gear. Or you can get the standard black or silver.

But why?

EX 2023 VAL

TONE Exceptional Value Award

These compact (but heavy!) monitors deliver big studio sound when space is at a premium. If you're really pressed for space, consider the active version, but we were really impressed with the natural ease these delivered.
